

Letter of Motivation

I am Swaranjali Arvind Mahadik, and I'm writing to communicate my sincere interest in my Master's degree in Data Science at TU Dortmund. With a powerful scholastic foundation in PC designing and an intense enthusiasm for information examination and computational procedures, I'm anxious to improve my skill and add to the unique field of information science.

I hold a Bachelor of Engineering in Computer Engineering from Savitribai Phule Pune College, India, where I graduated with a great CGPI of 9.32, comparable to a German grade of 1.34. This achievement mirrors my devotion to scholastic greatness and my solid groundwork in PC designing standards. Preceding my four year certification, I finished Recognition in PC Designing from the Maharashtra State Leading group of Specialized Training, Mumbai, with a score of 78.75%, comparable to a German grade of 2.06. Moreover, I succeeded in my tenth grade assessments with a score of 92.20%, comparable to a German grade of 1.36. These scholarly accomplishments highlight my steady exhibition and readiness for thorough advanced education.

My expert experience incorporates an internship at Wipro Restricted, a main worldwide data innovation organisation. During my temporary position from February 2022 to April 2022, I participated in different tasks that expected creative critical thinking abilities and a profound comprehension of information in the executives' frameworks. This experience permitted me to apply my hypothetical information in a pragmatic setting, subsequently hardening my advantage in information science. Besides, my IELTS score is 7.5, with Listening: 9.0, Reading: 7.0, Writing: 6.5, Speaking: 6.5 each.
